

Kyoungche Lee, Director of Algeria office, Korea Environmental Industry & Technology Institute (KEITI)

Lee is General director of the Algeria office of KEITI. His work is making an environmental cooperation business between Korea and Algeria Government as well as Company. Based in Algeria, he is also supporting the environment business of MENA(Middle East and North Africa), especially which is discovered by headquarter, and building a cooperation network with MENA countries to develop new environment business.

Kyungjin Shin, Director, K-Water

Kyungjin SHIN is an expert in water resource management and has worked at K-Water, the Korean government agency in charge of water resources development and management, since 2004. She is currently the representative of K-water's Europe office in Paris, France. In Africa, the Middle East, and Europe, she conducts research and develops new water projects.

Daeyong Kim, Director, Center for International Development, Korea Development Institute (KDI CID) Knowledge Sharing Program (KSP)

Dr. Daeyong KIM serves as the Director of Development Research at the Center for International Development (CID) within the Korea Development Institute (KDI). He holds a Ph.D., M.A., and B.A. in Economics from SungKyunKwan University in Korea. With 15 years of professional experience, Dr. KIM specializes in Applied, Development, and International Economics, including case studies of Korea's development experience. Furthermore, he has conducted significant international cooperation projects, notably the Knowledge Sharing Program (KSP) since 2011, in collaboration with international organizations and partner countries, which include Albania, Chile, Ecuador, Mexico, Mozambique, the Philippines, and Vietnam.